

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

TERRON EGERSON,

Petitioner,

v.

DENITA BALL,

Respondent.

Case No. 24-CV-1620-JPS

ORDER

On December 16, 2024, Petitioner Terron Egerson filed a petition for a writ of habeas corpus pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2254. ECF No. 1. On January 7, 2024, Magistrate Judge Nancy Joseph issued a recommendation to this Court that this action be dismissed for the failure to exhaust his state remedies. ECF No. 6. The time for objecting to the recommendation has passed and no objection has been received. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 72; Gen. L.R. 72(c).

The Court has considered the recommendation and, in light of its agreement with Magistrate Judge Joseph’s analysis and without objection from Petitioner, will adopt it. The Court clarifies, however, that the case will be dismissed without prejudice for the failure to exhaust state remedies. See Lasecki v. Verheyen, No. 18-C-506, 2018 WL 2185025, at *1 (E.D. Wis. May 11, 2018) (modifying recommendation of dismissal to be dismissal without prejudice for failure to exhaust state court remedies).

Under Rule 11(a) of the Rules Governing Section 2254 Cases, “the district court must issue or deny a certificate of appealability when it enters a final order adverse to the applicant.” To obtain a certificate of appealability under 28 U.S.C. § 2253(c)(2), Petitioner must make a “substantial showing of the denial of a constitutional right” by establishing that “reasonable jurists could debate whether (or, for that matter, agree that) the petition should have been resolved in a different manner or that the issues presented were adequate to deserve encouragement to proceed further.” Miller-El v. Cockrell, 537 U.S. 322, 336 (2003) (internal citations omitted). No reasonable jurists could debate whether Petitioner is entitled to relief. As a consequence, the Court is compelled to deny a certificate of appealability as to the petition.

Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED that Magistrate Judge Joseph’s report and recommendation, ECF No. 6, be and the same is hereby ADOPTED;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Petitioner’s petition for a writ of habeas corpus, ECF No. 1, be and the same is hereby DENIED without prejudice;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this action be and the same is hereby DISMISSED without prejudice for failure to exhaust; and

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that a certificate of appealability be and the same is hereby DENIED.

The Clerk of the Court is directed to enter judgment accordingly.

Dated at Milwaukee, Wisconsin, this 30th day of January, 2025.

This Order and the judgment to follow are final. A dissatisfied party may appeal this Court's decision to the Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit by filing in this Court a notice of appeal within thirty (30) days of the entry of judgment. See Fed. R. App. P. 3, 4. This Court may extend this deadline if a party timely requests an extension and shows good cause or excusable neglect for not being able to meet the thirty-day deadline. See Fed. R. App. P. 4(a)(5)(A). Moreover, under certain circumstances, a party may ask this Court to alter or amend its judgment under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 59(e) or ask for relief from judgment under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b). Any motion under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 59(e) must be filed within twenty-eight (28) days of the entry of judgment. The Court cannot extend this deadline. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 6(b)(2). Any motion under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b) must be filed within a reasonable time, generally no more than one year after the entry of the judgment. The Court cannot extend this deadline. See id. A party is expected to closely review all applicable rules and determine what, if any, further action is appropriate in a case.
